Mokena Officials Will Break Ground For Sewer Project Tonight

Formal groundbreaking on the site of the Mokena sewage treatment plant tonight marks the beginning of an improvement that has been talked of for more than a quarter century.

Robert Hamilton, the engineer who designed the treatment plant and sewer system that is also to be installed, pointed out that Mokena is the first of the communities in the Hickory creek basin outside of Joliet to make a move to bring about modern disposal of sanitary waste.

The system will cost more than $300,000 but when complete will have eight miles of sewer mains and a disposal plant where sewerage may be treated.

Start New Unit For New Lenox Shopping Center

Excavation for foundations of a new unit for the New Lenox shopping center at the east end of the village on U. S. 30 has been started by the Robert Regan Construction Co. It is to cost $85,000.

The building, which will be a square 90 by 90, will be divided into two stores, one both of which have been rented.

The larger of the two spaces 60 by 90, has been leased to Braun Sales, which deals in general merchandise, and the other unit, 30 by 90, will be occupied by Facinelli's New Lenox Bakery.

The structure, which will stand to the west of the Economy supermarket which is owned and operated by John and Lloyd Berlin, (father and son) and Edward Kabat, is being built by the trio.

Lloyd Berlin, acting as a spokesman for his partners, said that other plans call for other buildings on the site at some future date, to accommodate other lines of business.

The supermarket has been in operation for more than a year now and is reported doing an excellent business. The site is (Continued to page 12)

Much of the pomp and ceremony of bygone Memorial Days has toned down to more subdued rites of honoring the war dead.

While many communities still hold parades and have marching bands, for the most part the tenor of the day is solemnized by veterans organizations who place wreaths on memorials in tribute to those who have died for their country. Tomorrow, May 30, the day will be marked with special services thruout the communities.

5-Year Old Girl Dies of Burns When Match Ignites Clothing

A five-year old girl, Sharon R. Webster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Webster, 17160 Oriole ave., Orland township, died of burns in Hazel Crest hospital Friday. The child was severely burned when her clothing became ignited in her home on Thursday morning.

The tragic accident happened when her mother was gone for a short time, leaving Sharon and her sisters, Elizabeth 3, and April Lynn, 7 months alone in the house. A son, Robert, 7, was in school. The mother had taken a cab to the drug store to obtain special formula for the baby.

Sharon's clothing was entirely burned from her body when she ran screaming from the house. A neighbor, Mrs. Hazel Cammire, took the child into her home. Mrs. Jean Flood, of 7676 W. 173rd, who was visiting with Mrs. Cammire, dashed into the Webster home and rescued the baby unharmed from a bed which was in flames.

Evidently Sharon had been playing with matches when her clothing caught fire several of them were later discovered on the bed.

Mrs. Cammire in a frenzied state of mind tried to obtain help on the telephone. Her call was picked up by two operators in the Blue Island office, Marie (Continued on page 12)

Lutherans At Mokena Plan For the Future

The Immanuel Lutheran congregation (Missouri Synod) of Mokena have engaged an architect to prepare plans for their future development.

The new church is to be located on a 20-acre site owned by the church on the south side of LaPorte road, just west of the old School House Road, across the street from the Robert J. Hunniford home.

The voters' assembly of the church met with Charles Edward Stade, church architect and member of the Immanuel Lutheran church of Des Plaines, and discussed the development of a master plan for the LaPorte st. site.

Later the congregation voted to instruct Mr. Stade to begin work on the plan at once.

As soon as arrangements can be made by the building committee, it was announced, meetings will be held with every church society and group, the Ladies Aid, the Ruth Society, the Men's club, the Sunday school, the Youth Group, as well as a general meeting of all members of the congregation.

These people will meet to consider the future needs of the church. After these needs are outlined they will be turned over to Mr. Stade and he and his organizations will begin working out a master plan to show how the property can be laid out best for a parsonage, church, drives, parking, etc.

Whether actual construction takes place at once or five, 10 or 20 years from now, it was pointed out, the congregation will be working according to a sound plan and avoid costly mistakes in the future.

Work Break

The following memorandum was written by a frustrated business man who thought his employees weren't working as hard as they might.

"Due to increased competition and a keen desire to remain in business, we find it necessary to institute a new policy—EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY!

"We are asking that somewhere between starting and quitting time, and without infringing too much on the time usually devoted to lunch period, story telling, coffee breaks, rest periods, ticket selling, the re-harshing of yesterday's TV programs, and discussion of engagement rings, that each employee try to find some time that can be set aside and known as 'WORK BREAK'.

"To some, this may seem a radical innovation, but we honestly believe the idea has great possibilities. It can conceivably be an aid to steady employment and it might also be a means of assuring steady paychecks. While the adoption of the 'WORK BREAK' plan is not compulsory, we hope each employee will find time to give it a fair trial."

Crime is Crime

The FBI reports that last year juveniles under 18 accounted for an astounding 47.2 per cent of all the people arrested for major crimes as murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, and so on.

This grim bit of information caused the Wall Street Journal to inquire into the possible causes behind the soaring juvenile crime rate. One, it believes, lies in the increased assumption by the state of responsibility for children and the consequent lessening of parental responsibility—that is "the schools now undertake to teach things that ought to be taught at home." And the emphasis on the progressive theory of education has undoubtedly undermined self-discipline and respect for authority.

The Journal also points to another far-reaching change in our society: "Somehow we have allowed the age of a criminal to so tip the balance that a hideous crime by a person old enough to vote becomes the bewildered act of an unfortunate child if he is young enough to fit within the juvenile laws. Can it be that this attitude of softness is itself an invitation to juvenile crime?"

Society, in self-defense if for no other reason, will have to realize that crime is crime, no matter what the age of the offender, and act accordingly. To quote the Journal again, there will be small chance of improvement in this intolerable situation" . . . until youngsters are held more responsible for their crimes and until parents again become more responsible for their youngsters.

Letters to the Editor

PRaise TEACHER

To the Editor:
We talk of "giving" our children an education. That is an obvious absurdity. No indulgent parent and no institution of learning can "give" anyone an education. The best we can do is to give the individual an opportunity to learn.

Galileo, many centuries ago, said succinctly, "You cannot teach a man anything; you can only help him find it within himself."

In our candid opinion, we believe that Mrs. Adeline Warriner (a teacher at Weitendorf school for many years) has exemplified herself as an outstanding teacher by teaching our children to find it within themselves—by creating the desire in our children to learn.

We have heard many speeches on better schools. How can we have such if we do not have good teachers?

Mrs. Adeline Warriner is just such a teacher, and might we add we wouldn't like to be the ones to try to find one as successful as she.

We are proud to have the opportunity of recommending her to any institution of learning and thank her sincerely for the wonderful teaching she has done with our children.

Your sincerely,
The Parents of School District 154, Frankfort Twp.

(Ed. Note: This letter carries the signatures of 33 persons and was occasioned by the fact that Mrs. Warriner recently tendered her resignation to the board of school directors.)

WOULD GIVE SCHNEIDER LICENSE

May 21, 1958
6647 W. 175th St.
Tinley Park, Ill.

To the Editor:

I would like to express an opinion in regard to Frank Schnieder being denied a liquor license.

Mr. Schneider intended to open a modern restaurant which this community certainly could use. I fail to understand why Tinley Park can have numerous taverns but not a restaurant where liquor is served.

There seems to be an element of the population which becomes incensed over any new developments. If you will recall, there were petitions circulated predicting dire consequence before the roller rink and the cement plant were built.

Because of this highly vocal minority, those of us who enjoy going out to dinner will have to continue to patronize restaurants in other communities.

Sincerely,
Claire D. Hawken

Darlyne Cleveland, of Marley, Becomes Bride of James Hischier

Miss Darlyne Cleveland of Marley, became the bride of James Hischier at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon May 24, in St. John's church at Joliet. The Rev. Reinhold Link, O.S.M. officiated at the double ring ceremony which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Cleveland of Marley and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Hischier, 400 N. Bluff st., Joliet.

Appropriate organ selections were played by the church organist. The children's choir of the church sang "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother." Bouquets of red carnations decorated the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon sheer over taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice, a scoop neckline and cap sleeves. Embroidered medallions were applied on the bouffant chapel length skirt, cinched at the waist by a cummerbund. Her fingertip veil was caught to a tiara of seed pearls and sequins. She wore a pearl choker with matching earrings, and carried a cascade of lilies of the valley centered by a white orchid.

Miss Pat Spratt was maid of honor. Her gown of mint green nylon chiffon over taffeta was styled with a fitted bodice, cap sleeves, scoop neckline and a bouffant ballerina skirt, cinched at the waist by a shirred taffeta cummerbund with a fish tail back. Her headpiece was a matching cap and blusher veil. She carried a cascade of white daisies.

The brides maids, who were dressed identically to the maid of honor, were Mrs. DeLoris Huttenhoff, sister of the bride; Mrs. Donna Blackwell, Miss Hester Cruise and Miss Carol Stockley. Flower girl was Cindy Lou Huttenhoff, niece of the bride. She wore a gown fashioned identically to the bridesmaids and carried a basket of rose petals.

Daniel Hischier attended his brother as best man. The ushers were Darrell Cleveland, brother of the bride; Kenneth Ruth, Jerome Blackwell, and Lawrence Moeller.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Cleveland chose a navy dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of light blue lace over white with white accessories. Her corsage was of blue and white carnations.

A reception was held that evening at Cantigny Post hall in Joliet, with 350 in attendance. Miss Ardis Batson presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Ervin Loucks at the coffee service. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Fred Brown. Mrs. Mary Ann Morris was in charge of the guest book.

The couple departed on a short wedding trip and upon their return they will reside at 307½ Whittier ave. in Joliet.

Organize Church Softball League At Tinley Park

After a successful basketball season the Tinley Park church league voted to continue its program to include softball. Several meetings have been held to form the league and plan the schedule.

The teams entered in the league are St. George, Methodist, Zion Lutheran and Reformed. The Nazarene were unable to enter due to conflicting schedules from another league of which they are a member. The games will be played Wednesday and Friday evenings at Memorial Park beginning at 6:45 p.m.

The league voted to elect new officers for each sport, altho Ken Webster will remain as league chairman. Those elected to offices for softball are John Ficker, president; Jerry Hug, vice president; Bob Mason, secretary and John Lovegren, treasurer.

The teams will play a 12-game schedule and will also play an all-star game. There is no age limit and the team managers urge anyone affiliated with their church to come out and play ball.

On Thursday evening, June 5, there will be a meeting of all coaches, players and managers at the Central school at 8:00 p.m.

Lester Muir, director of the Blue Island church league for several years, will be present to discuss rules of the game and answer any questions.

Babe Ruths At Frankfort to Play First Game June 10

The Babe Ruth team from Frankfort and Lincoln Estates, sponsored jointly by the Auxiliary Police and Frankfort Firemen, will play its opening game of the season at Mokena the evening of June 10, and will play every Tuesday and Friday thereafter, weather permitting, of course. Games are scheduled to begin at 6:15 o'clock.

The Frankfort team is in the northern division of a tri-county league. The other clubs in this division are Mokena, Orland Park, New Lenox, Matteson and Manhattan.

Boys interested in trying out for the team still have a chance to show their stuff before June 1, it was pointed out. They may contact Jay W. Bissell, Lincoln Estates, whose whose number is 3812.

Tinley Police League Entry to Open Season Against Orland Sunday

The Tinley Park Police league team lost a pre-season game to Matteson Sunday, 22 to 0 and was to have the last of such contests at Oak Forest yesterday. League play will begin June 1 with the Tinley Tigers pitted against Orland Park. The game will be played at Tinley Memorial park, on 171st st., at 1 o'clock.

Lyman Anfield, manager of the Tigers, announced that either Gallagher or Konig will start on the mound for his team Sunday. Orland is expected to start its ace hurler, Phil Yerdis.

Orland finished first in the South Division of the league last year and second in the all-county play off.

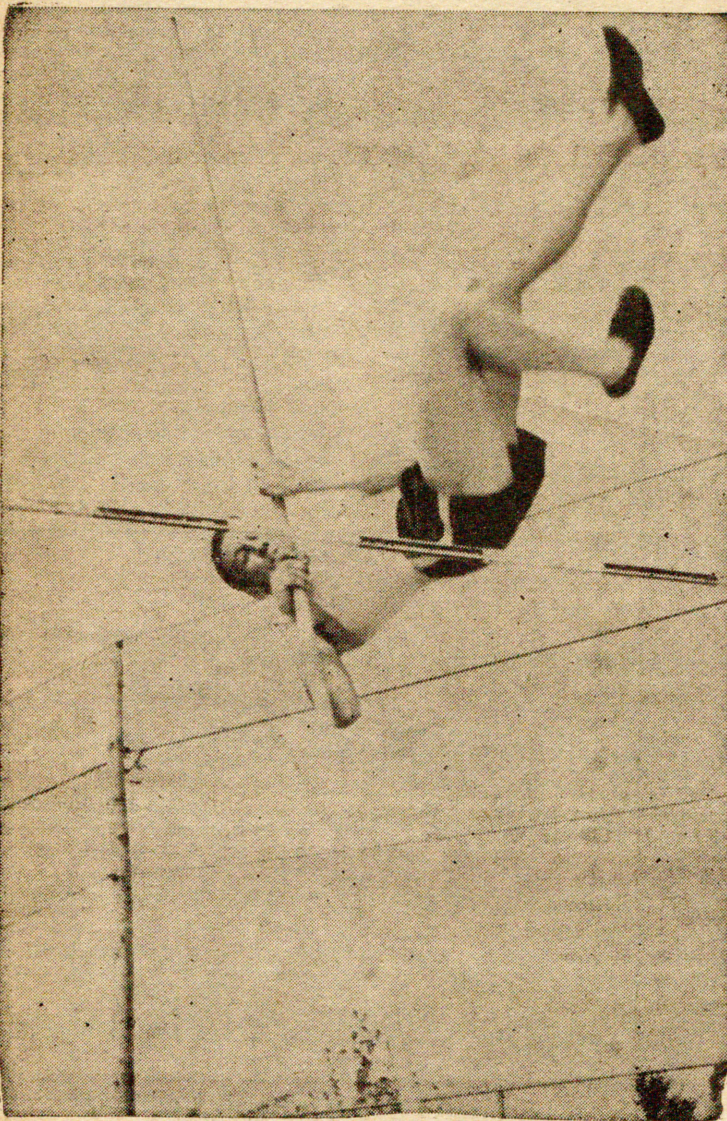

This is the first time that most of the Tinley squad has played against as stiff competition as is to be found in the Police league, Anfield said. The older players in Tinley that would give the team more balance have turned out yet, he added.

Anfield was also critical of the parents. The Tinley team represents about 12 families, he said, but only three parents appeared at the Matteson game. Lack of parental interest does not help the young athletes, Anfield stated.

He picks Matteson as the team to beat this year as it is able to draw players from Park Forest, Chicago Heights and some other nearby towns as well as Matteson. The league has a ruling that if a town has a team, boys cannot play on a team from another town but if the town does not have a team they are free to play where they can.

In the opening games June 1 Oak Forest will play Matteson, Midlothian, Robbins and Markham each have two teams in the league and they will square away against each other to start the season.

The lad here, Ken Weber, a senior at Lincoln-Way high school, is shown here as he cleared the bar at 8 feet in the junior-senior division events of the Southwest Suburban conference track and field meet held at Rich high school last week. Weber didn't win the event but when the final vault was made the photographer happened to be elsewhere.

NASCAR Midget Champ to Race On Joliet Oval

Bob Harkey, 1957 national NASCAR midget auto racing champion, will fly to Joliet from his home in Charlotte, S. C., Saturday night for the races in Memorial Stadium.

Harkey, who says he hopes to move to Joliet soon, made his debut last week in the season opening program at Joliet. He won his preliminary race handily, but engine trouble kept him out of the money in the feature race.

Bob Tattersall of Streator, 1956 Joliet track champion, is expected to make his first appearance of the season Saturday.

Among the other veterans competing Saturday will be Willie Wildhaber of Lexington, Ill., who won the main event last week; Johnny Meyers and 1957 track champion George Sellery, both of Chicago; Don Chapman of Aurora; Paul Kerber, Elgin; and JoHetans Bernie Wilhelmi, Bob Magee and Bill Barnes.

There will be four heat races, a handicap, 15 lap semifeature and 25 lap feature Saturday. Time trials will start at 7:30 p.m. and the first race at 8:30 p.m.

SCOUT NEWS

POTAWATTOMI CAMPOREE

The 1,000 Boy Scouts and 300 Explorers in 43 units of Potawatomi District of Boy Scouts of America, Pokagon Trails Council, will hold their annual spring camporee from Friday evening, June 6, to Sunday morning, June 8 at Sweet Woods South in Jurgenson's Woods Forest preserve south of Thornton.

Visitors are invited to the Saturday evening campfire at 8 o'clock, when there will be a dramatization of the Delaware Indian legend upon which the Order of the Arrow is based.

Forest preserve rangers will be guests thruout the camporee.

Scout units making a 95 per cent score on the camporee judging sheets will be awarded blue streamers.

S. COOK CO. COUNCIL

Hundreds of Girl Scouts in South Cook County may be occupying seats in school rooms these days, but their thoughts are hurrying ahead to mid-June and the opening of Camp Manistee at Montague, Mich.

The camp, owned and operated by the South Cook County Girl Scout Council, will begin its 11th season in the Manistee National Forest on June 26th. Registrations are still being accepted by mail or in person at the Council Office in Harvey. The first and fourth sessions still have openings and Girl Scouts are encouraged to make their plans now to reserve a place.

Camp Manistee provides the "Outing" in Scouting. A good camp is more than a site with good equipment. It is girls and leaders working and playing together in the out of doors. Girls learn joy in simple things, enthusiasm for new interests, appreciation of other people, and satisfaction of a task well done.

The staff is headed by Miss Lucille Ellis, camp director, of Memphis, Tenn., who is returning for her second summer. She will be supervising counselors from widely scattered areas and will begin pre-camp training with them one week before the campers arrive. There are still a few vacancies on the staff, namely a nurse, and a few unit leaders over 21. In the interests of better Girl Scout program in camp, it is found to be very worthwhile to include experienced troop leaders on the staff. Qualified leaders and parents are encouraged to apply for the summer of for two week periods.

This week, all buildings are being repainted white, and the dock put in. A new staff shower house, a boat house, a pitcher pump in the Primitive unit and a separate dispensary for the infirmary are some of the improvements to be "discovered" by returning campers. However, those who fear too much modernization at Manistee, are assured that the same tents, simple outdoor living and cooking in a beautiful wilderness setting are unchanged and ready to welcome eager campers from the city's confines.

TROOP 507

Intermediate Girl Scout troop 507 won a blue ribbon at the 5th annual Suburban Flower show, held May 17 and 18. They were also awarded a $5.00 gift certificate. They had five entries, one of which was a miniature of the Tinley Creek Woods complete with shelter, road etc. The girls were quite thrilled and felt well compensated for all the work they had put into the entries.

At their Troop meeting May 20 they were privileged to have Mrs. Florence VerWey speak to them on the Badge Program, which was a great help to the girls. Badges were also awarded at the meeting.

A splash party has been planned for Tuesday afternoon, June 10, at the Harvey pool.

Mrs. Lillian Zawadzki is the leader of Troop 507 and Mrs. Lee Mancy, co-leader.

Expert Tells How to Choose Seed for Lawn

The kind of lawn you need determines the kind of grass you should choose, according to Bob Johnson, local lawn expert, of the Illinois Lawn Equipment Company in Palos.

If appearance is more important than wearability, he suggests a picture lawn, and for maximum wearability, a play lawn, or a happy medium of a family lawn.

A picture lawn must be watered, Johnson warns. A family lawn appreciates water and a play lawn adapts itself to hot, dry places.

A skillful blending of three or four grasses make a handsome lawn. To determine the amount of seed needed, calculate the number of square feet of lawn you expect to plant. Look on the seed box for the area coverage. Picture lawn sows 500 square feet per pound, family sows 250, and play 125 square feet.

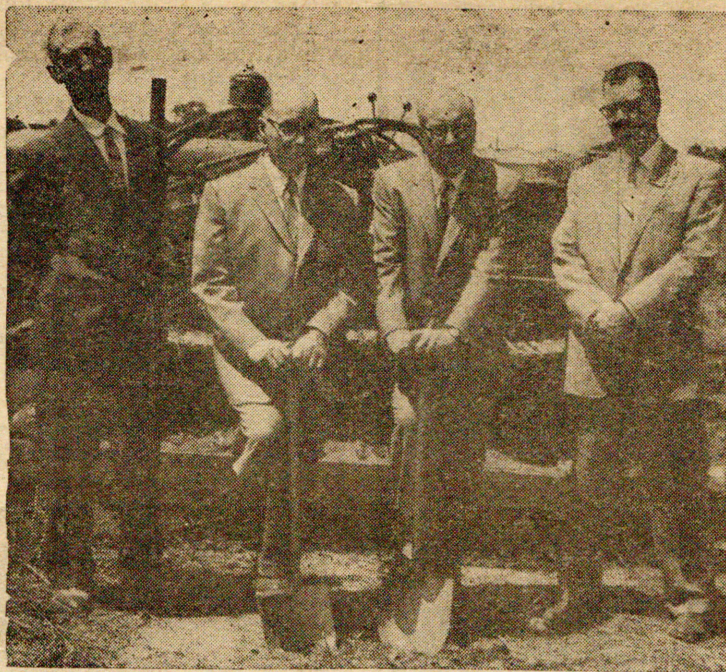

Frankfort Grade Alumni to Hold 51st Banquet

The alumni of the elementary school of Frankfort will hold their 51st annual banquet and program next Thursday evening, June 5 in the St. Peter's Evangelical church. The affair will start at 6:30 p.m. with Albert H. Krusemark presiding.

The speaker will be Harry H. Hardy, director of field services of the public relations department of the Standard Oil Co. His topic will be "Breaking of the Sound Barrier." There will be selections from the vocal group from the Lincoln-Way high school chorus and from an instrumental group from the same high school.

Officers serving the past year are, Mr. Krusemark, president; Sherill Weichbrodt, vice president; Pat Heisner, secretary and Mrs. Edgar Lund, treasurer. New officers will be elected at the meeting previous to the program.

Brookville, Pa., American: "Senator Goldwater believes that high tax rates are actually a major source of inflation, because they are a limiting factor on personal and business savings, and thus result in excessive pressure on the banking system for capital which should have come from current income."

START MATCH FACTORY—Formal groundbreaking for the match factory to be built at Frankfort took place Saturday, May 24, on the Pacific st. side of the site. The factory, which is to have 150,000 square feet of floor space and employ some 300 persons, is to be located on a 25-acre site between Locust and Maple streets on the southwest side of Frankfort. Participating in the groundbreaking ceremonies as shown here (l to r) are: Mayor George Sangmeister, A. C. Bauch, one of the landowners who sold acreage to the company, Harold Meitus, president of Superior Match Co., which is erecting the factory, and Village Attorney Albert H. Krusemark. Work has been started on the foundations. Superior Match Co. has a plant at Chicago, which will continue to operate after the plant is put in operation at Frankfort, a company spokesman said. State School Building Body O.K.'s Request

Five final approvals and two tentative approvals for aid received the favorable nod of the Illinois School Building Commission at its stated meeting last Thursday at the commission office in Joliet, it was announced by George P. Lloyd, commission chairman, and Vernon L. Nickell, state superintendent of public instruction, and ex officio commission secretary.

Final approvals were given to districts which had previously received tentative go-aheads and have since received approval of the voters of their districts to participate in the program thru the means of special election.

Districts receiving final approvals included four from Cook county and one from Will and Kendall counties. The four outlying Cook county districts included Posen-Robbins Elementary No. 143½, Markham elementary No. 144, Cooper's Grove elementary No. 160 of rural Tinley Park and Bridgeview elementary No. 109. The latter district serves the communities of Bridgeview, Justice and Roberts Park.

The Will-Kendall district receiving final approval was Plainfield Unit No. 202. Final approval for this district had been made at the previous commission meeting, subject to an opinion from the office of the Illinois Attorney General pertinent to matters of school building site. Such favorable opinion was received from the Attorney General's office, which confirmed the final approval for the Plainfield district.

2 Get Tentative OK

Tentative approvals were given by the commission today to two other districts, one in Cook county and the other in Will county. The Cook county district was Ridgeland elementary No. 122 of Oak Lawn, and the Will county district was Fairmont elementary No. 89. The Ridgeland district application had been deferred pending amending data on its application. The commission had previously rejected a Fairmont application, with today's tentative approval based upon a reapplication for aid.

Both districts receiving tentative approval had complied with the enabling statute by showing that each will require, in addition to present classrooms and those for which funds have been provided by the district, classrooms for at least 110 pupils in average daily attendance at the beginning of the ensuing school term and that the need for such additional classrooms will continue thru the next five years. The two districts have certified that their bonding power has been reduced to less than $5,000 or will have done so in complying with the provisions of the statute, enacted by the last Illinois general assembly.

Three other Cook county districts had their applications for aid rejected due to failure to show the need of classroom space for the minimum of 110 pupils in average daily attendance. They included Willow Springs elementary No. 108, La Grange Highlands elementary No. 106 and Park Ridge elementary No. 64.

Reject Four

The applications of four other districts, which had previously received tentative approvals, were rejected for aid by the commission in a separate action. Applying district, in order to receive final approval, must have conducted special elections with in 45 days after receipt of notice of tentative approval. The 45-day period had expired without a special election in the four districts receiving rejections. The districts included three in Cook county, Skokie elementary No. 68 Park Forest No. 163 and East Maine elementary No. 63. The fourth district, Rock Falls elementary No. 13, lies within Whiteside county.

Ten districts have received final approvals. To date there have been no instances of an applying district receiving tentative approval and sustaining a rejection of participation in the state program by its voters in special election. A rejection by the voters of a district automatically disqualifies a district from receiving school building aid, in accordance with the enabling State law.

Asks Administrator For Estate of Auto Accident Victim

A petition asking that Public Administrator Albert H. Krusemark be named as such to handle the estate of Charles William Zika, 28, late of Mokena, has been filed in the Will county probate court. Zika was killed April 18, 1957 when six cars piled up at a fog shrouded corner near Orland Park.

His estate, according to the petition, consists of a claim for wrongful death. Zika left no will and his heirs at law consist of his father and mother, William and Anna, who live on 114 ave. near 197th st., Mokena, and a sister, Ellen, of Chicago.

New Lenox Asks Highway Dept. to Make Speed Survey

Lloyd Berlin, mayor of New Lenox, has asked the Division of Highways, State of Illinois, to make a survey of signs posted on the highway which crosses thru the village.

Complaints have been made by motorists who have been arrested for speeding. The village wishes the survey made so that the state may rule whether or not the speed signs installed are realistic and should remain and be enforced.

NEW LENOX

All organizations in New Lenox have been invited to participate in the Memorial Day parade being sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the auxiliary.

The parade will start at 10 a.m. from Oak View school, march south to Haven, then north to Cedar rd., and west to Maplewood cemetery, where services will be held.

MOKENA

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and auxiliary are sponsoring a parade and ceremonies in Mokena. The parade will start from the VFW hall to St. Mary's cemetery, thence to the Pioneer Memorial cemetery, then to St. John's cemetery where services will be held at the Memorial in the servicemen section.

Taking part in the ceremonies will be the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts, the VFW drum and bugle corps and school children. Clarence Zugenbuehler, Commander of the VFW is handling the Memorial Day ceremonies.

The color guard is composed of Larry Vaughn, Warren Nelson, Pete Nelson, Wesley Nelson, and Fritz Bramaier. Following services, they will travel to Joliet to participate in their parade.

The cause of death was given as shock following the accident.

Funeral services for the small victim were held in the Tinley Park Methodist church Tuesday, with the Rev. Kenneth Crandall officiating. Burial was in the Tinley Park Memorial cemetery. Sharon was born February 22, 1953. The family has lived in Tinley Park for the past three years.

Besides her parents, brother and sisters, she is also survived by grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Webster of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith, of Kansas City, Mo.

VILLAGE OFFICIALS—

The groundbreaking ceremony tonight is scheduled for 7:30 o'clock. Mayor James Marti, Village Attorney Ray Hoolehan, Trustees Willard Munch, Phil Hacker, Ray Westlund, Charles Hostert, Stanley Williams, Lyman Teague, Engineer Hamilton and a representative of the Lindblad Construction Co. will participate in the program.

The treatment plant will be located on the west side of Wolf road, just south of the drainage ditch, about half a mile north of the Village. The village has purchased three acres there and this will be sufficient for any expansion to the plant in the practical future, it was stated.

The plant is designed so it will be attractive in appearance and—which is a point that a number of persons raised when the program was first broached—odorless.

Bids were taken and contracts let last August but there was some delay in ironing out some technicalities and meeting certain requirements requested by the bonding companies before the bonds were finally sold. As a matter of fact it was only about 10 days ago that the bonds were finally turned over to the purchasers and the village came into pos-

NEW ADDITION TO SHOPPING CENTER is started at New Lenox. Lloyd Berlin, Edward Kabat and John Berlin, (l to r), who own and operate the Economy supermarket on U. S. 30 at the east end of New Lenox, are conferring with Daniel O'Connor, head of Robert Regan Construction Co., the contractors on plans for the addition to be erected as a part of the shopping center they have underwritten. This picture was taken just after the three partners had each turned a shovelful of earth to start the project. session of the funds necessary to carry on with the work.

The village has a federal grant of some $69,000 to be applied on the cost of the treatment plant but this money will not be forthcoming, it was explained, until a certain amount of the work has been done.

The grant was made by the government as a part of its program for combatting stream pollution. The state water board also is working to clear up streams, including Hickory creek, and with Mokena taking action to do its part in this direction it is expected the state will get tougher with other communities who have not acted.

New Lenox would install sewers if it were financially feasible but the cost is too great and no bonding house would touch the village's paper, it was explained. The cost would be high at New Lenox, it was pointed out, because most of the excavating would be in rock.

large enough for ample parking space and because of that and its easy access it draws swarms of shoppers from the area.

A shopping center in that location is looked upon as advantageous to the merchant as well as the shopper, it was brought out.

The structure now under construction will be of brick and concrete and is expected to be ready for use in the fall.

Dust Clouds Choke Front St. Residents West of Wolf Road

Residents along Front street west of Wolf road are having trouble breathing. That stretch of road was newly graveled last fall, preparatory for black-topping, and now the dust is so thick that one can hardly breathe if they happen to be out side their home when cars are driving by.

The village board is concerned with this problem, but the county, which will do this work usually does not do so before July. The county is not in favor of anyone applying crank-case oil etc., as they claim it hinders their operations. There have been suggestions that perhaps sprinkling the street with water each day or so during the dusty spell will be the thing to do.

Seeks Factor of One For Will Co. Tax Valuations

This is of interest only to Will county residents who own real estate.

When you see the assessed valuation published in the paper, multiply it by two and then you will know the figure that will be used in making out your tax bills for 1959. If it is too high complain to the board of review.

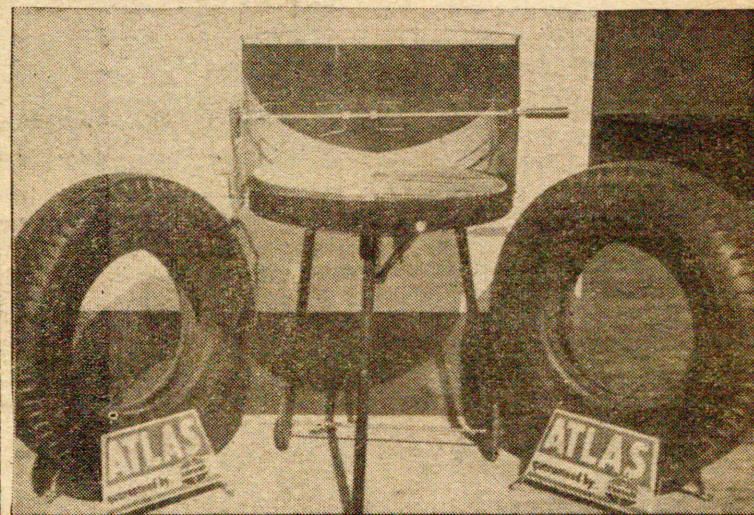

This is the advise of Will County Treasurer Floyd Krapf, ex-officio supervisor of assessments. He explained that an endeavor is being made during to a county where property is this quadrennial year to bring assessed at 55 per cent of its valuations up to 55% of actual actual market value.

According to information received by county officials concerned with taxes the state department of revenue will assign a multiplying factor of one

County Treasurer Krapf warns that a rise in valuations will mean a rise in taxes unless the various taxing bodies reduce their rates.

Hard Work Needed

"There is a segment of the public which holds that so much of the current recession is 'psychological'. We'll go along with that . . . But we're not economists nor psychologists. We're in the printing and publishing business and we have felt the 'pinch' as other businesses have. To sit by and brood over the prospects will do no good. We're going to dig in to drum up business to pay our taxes, a part of which will go toward relieving the costs of relief."—Munsing, Mich., News.

Read 1 Corinthians 15:50-58
Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord. (1 Corinthians 15:58.)

God's physical laws are unchangeable. If we plant good seeds in soil that is prepared for them and they are given the necessary moisture, the seeds will sprout. If we keep the weeds out, and the young plants continue to receive moisture and sunshine, in due time they will bear fruit.

God's spiritual laws are unchangeable. God uses us to plant His Word, the spiritual seed. By our Christian witness, we prepare the soil. We water it with Christian service and lend it the warmth of intercessory prayer. In due time it bears fruit in the lives that are won to Christ and His way of life.

If the spiritual seeds we plant are good and are tended well, God gives us the increase in the form of world-wide Christian fellowship.

PRAYER: Eternal God, knowing that our reward is sure when we serve Thee in sincerity and truth, we humbly seek to do Thy will. To this end, grant us courage and faithfulness this day. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
I will sow good seeds that others may know Christ.

"LIFETIME LEARNING"

"Today, all the children of all the people go to school and make some kind of start on becoming educated people. Most of their schooling is preparatory to the real business of learning, which must take place after adulthood is reached and in the setting of adult living. Hence, learning must become a lifelong activity, a task never completed, to be put out of the way and behind one. Happily, it can become, not a burden of drudgery, but one of the most interesting and pleasant of occupations, particularly as competence in the arts of learning is acquired. The role of University Extension is to assist the out of school adult in his lifelong learning, and to bring to him the chance for systematic and sustained pursuit of

says Mrs. Michels

Modern electric cooking means a cooler kitchen . . . one that helps save Mrs. Michels' energy for outside activities. She is a member of the Junior Board of Passavant Hospital and other charitable groups.

JIM CONWAY: You know, electric cooking's the coolest kind there is. That's one of the main reasons it's becoming more popular every day with modern women like yourself!

MRS. MICHEL: Well, Jim, it's mighty nice to work in a cool kitchen! You see, Hugh and I do a lot of entertaining . . . and, of course, there're always cookies to bake for the girls . . . but with all the baking I do . . . company-size roasts, pies like this, everything, my kitchen still stays cool and comfortable.

JIM CONWAY: I'm sure it does, because actual baking tests prove that modern electric ovens keep kitchens an average of 10 degrees cooler than any other kind.

MRS. MICHEL: I know that from experience, Jim . . . but why is it?

JIM CONWAY: Well, Mrs. Michels, it's because electric ovens are insulated on all 6 sides . . . not just five . . . so that the heat stays in the oven where it belongs. And, of course, that's one of the reasons electric cooking's so economical . . . actually costs only 7¢ a day for the average family.

MRS. MICHEL: Speaking of families, Jim . . . why not stay and have some of this apple pie with us?

JIM CONWAY: Mm-m-m-m-m! Electric cooking does have its advantages, doesn't it?

Every day, more modern women cook the modern electric way

The Value Line Investment Survey recently carried a survey of the agricultural equipment industry. The survey points out that latent replacement demand for tractors and implements provides the basis for expecting sales boom at "some future date." However, as long as the chief determinant of this industry's fortunes—net farm income—continues to slide "some future date" may remain distant. It is the opinion of this service that the only stock in the agricultural equipment group that is worthy of consideration for income at this time is International Harvester.

The long term trend of realized net farm income is definitely downward. This is seen by a comparison of farm income and its percentage of the national income. In the post World War II period, realized net farm income has declined from a peak of 8.4 per cent of national income to 3.3 per cent in 1957.

Farm income has had a two pronged squeeze on profit margins. Farm income has been pressed down by over abundant crops, price supports and soil bank payments not withstanding. On the other hand, supplies and equipment used in production, have been pushed higher by the wage-price spiral of industry.

Government economists figure that the business recession should have little direct impact on farm income, because it has been depressed for years and food demands tend to hold even in slack times. Foreign demand, however, is considerably lower than a year ago. This will tend to halt the drop in government-owned stock pile of surplus farm products and cause further downward pressure on commodity prices. Some analysts believe that the Department of Agriculture was too optimistic when, in November, it predicted net farm income for 1958 will be at the 1957 rate.

President Eisenhower's farm message this year commits the government to a program designed to keep the government from being the major market for farm products. This is likely to mean fewer controls and higher acreage plantings.

Fortunately for the agricultural equipment makers, a rising percentage of net farm income has been going into purchase of equipment. During the depression equipment was not bought regardless of need. Such purchases can be postponed more readily than taxes, interest and family necessities. A large volume of deferred demand artificially inflated sales of equipment immediately following World War II. Steel manufacturers do not expect this demand to be repeated unless there is another war with its special and immediate demands for food increases.

Higher paying jobs in industry have forced farm labor costs to the point where labor saving machinery is a must. Farm wage rates have increased four fold as against a two fold increase in costs of machinery, tractors and supplies. The advantage of shifting from hand labor to machinery is obvious. The implement industry continues to develop greatly improved tractors and implements that expand their market. The demand for spare parts on which manufacturer's profit margins are believed to be generous, is increasing in line with growth of farm machinery use.

The farmer's financial position is sound with total farm net worth equal to more than eight times total farm debt. This compares with a 4 to 1 ratio immediately preceding World War II.

Complain About Top Soil Removal In Palos Township

(CNS) Charges that S. E. Gedroic is removing clay and topsoil in Palos township without a permit are erroneous, according to a letter received by Assistant State's Attorney Richard Houpt from the Building and Zoning Bureau.

The county's complaint against Gedroic was dismissed by Acting County Judge Charles I. Fleming upon receipt of the letter, Houpt said Wednesday.

The complaint—filed by State's Attorney Adamowski—alleged the barrow pit operation on the west side of Route 7 (Southwest Highway), 600 feet north of Route 82 has been conducted since last July 17.

The letter did not make clear whether Gedroic was removing the clay and topsoil with a permit or was not removing clay and topsoil at all.

Family Care Program Successfully Aids Mental Patients to Recover

(This is the third of a series of articles dealing with programs conducted in state hospitals for the mentally ill.)

By ANNE RODGER

The primary function of a mental, emotional, and social recovery of patients. This is achieved by diversified methods apart from physical and psychiatric care.

In previous articles it was illustrated how, thru the establishment of numerous services, the Tinley Park State hospital attempts to perform its primary function.

The family care program already mentioned is a relatively new development. Originally used primarily by the department of public welfare to place children under foster home care, the plan in recent years, has been adopted successfully for adult care.

The program provides supervision and emotional support for those patients who no longer require institutional care, whose relatives are unable to care for them, or those who have no relatives.

Patients placed in foster homes have improved to the extent that they are capable of returning to community life under the supervision of hospital personnel for a conditional period or until completely discharged.

At the end of 1951, there were 15.3 per cent of the total number of patients on state hospital records in 964 hospitals throughout the United States, in some type of placement in the community.

It has been estimated that if adequate community facilities were available, the number of patients who could be released under such a program would double that amount.

Combats Prejudice

The family care program aids the older persons still in need of semi-protected environment and for the younger person it serves as a temporary haven between the protected hospital environment and the community.

It provides individualized care and more freedom than is provided in the hospital, also opportunities for a return to normal living, and combats community prejudices against mental patients.

Selection of patients for placement is done jointly by the medical and social service staffs.

At the Tinley Park State hospital the responsibility for the direction of the family care program is under Dr. John Cutler, superintendent.

The responsibility for the placement of patients comes under the professional supervision of David Baruch, chief of social service.

A Voluntary Plan

The vast majority of older patients in state mental hospitals who require minimal psychiatric care could be placed in family care to be examined regularly in out-patient clinics. Many who are able to work could live responsible lives with a minimum of supervision if suitable homes could be found for them. No patient is ever placed unless he agrees to the plan.

These patients may return to the hospital for any necessary medical service. They may receive absolute discharge at any time and those unable to make an adjustment are returned to the hospital.

Dr. Cutler has stated: "We feel that a better understanding of the patients in our institution and the problems of care for the mentally ill will result in a more ready acceptance of mental illness and its victims by the general public, who might well say, 'There, but for the Grace of God, go I'.

By MRS. H. E. DONOVAN
Know Your Neighbor

Seven months ago the Damer family moved into the subdivision on Gaynelle road where Walter J. Damer became the organizing minister for the Protestant church in the subdivision, now being called the Presbyterian Church of Tinley Park.

The Damer family have two children, Diana Lynn, 5 years old, and Calvin, 2½. Diana has remarked about the pleasure she has in playing "out on the prairies" and watching the rabbits scamper. For Calvin, the weeds and grass have been a hardship. His leg was badly burned by a grass fire last month, and that will take a long time to heal.

Both father and mother have a wide background of travel and education. They were born in Europe, reared by their families in western Canada, and received their higher education in the USA. Mrs. Damer is a graduate of Northwestern college in Minneapolis, where she majored in music and Christian education. After graduation she was a secretary for the Billy Graham association. Mr. Damer received a B. A. degree from Moravian college in Bethlehem, Pa., and a B. D. degree from Louisville Presbyterian seminary, Louisville, Ky. They were married six years ago, after which they began their life together with Mr. Damer completing his education in Louisville, Ky. Prior to their coming here, the family lived in Covington, and Indianapolis, Ind., where they served in Presbyterian churches.

Living in Kimberly Heights for them has been a wonderful experience, and the fresh air and sunshine really are unsurpassable, as are the winds. There is a slight handicap that exists in their home, which is different from all the other residences. It is used as a church, with weekly Sunday school services, choir rehearsals, and other meetings. In a month's time over 600 people will come and go. They have appreciated the wonderful consideration that has been shown to them under these conditions, and they want everyone to feel welcome to come and visit and to worship.

Homeowners' Association
The social committee had its first meeting at the home of the chairman, Alfred Kanzler, to formulate plans for the Kimberly Heights picnic, which plans will be submitted to the board of directors for their approval. Of course, everything hinges on whether or not we will be able to get a permit at this time, since most of the forest preserves are booked up well in advance of the picnic season. More later on this.

Sunday, May 18, was the occasion for dual rejoicing at the Roman Koleczek home at 16531 Ridgeland. It was christening day for the new baby, and also the 12th wedding anniversary of his parents. Young Jeffrey Joseph was baptized in St. George church in Tinley Park, with the Rev. Gordon P. Campbell officiating. The sponsors were Janice Koleczek of Steger, and Robert Gumber of Chicago. The ceremony was followed by a buffet dinner for about 40 relatives and friends.

Last Thursday, Marge Musatto had a visit from three of her former co-workers at the Pullman Co., Mary Satriano, Dina Valenti and Jo King. The girls enjoyed looking at the model homes and were amazed at all the changes which had taken place in the subdivision since their last visit over a year ago.

When it came time to go home, the thin crescent moon did not throw much light, and somehow, even with two back seat drivers, Dina failed to make the right turn at Beverly but followed Kimberly drive on its winding way till it comes to a dead end. Dina found her city driving experience in turning had not prepared her for such added complications as dark gravel roads, ditches, culverts, etc. so Mary got out of the car to direct the maneuver, and almost got left behind in the "wilderness."

Them city chicks better consult the almanac to make sure there's a full moon for their next visit to the country.

As the birthdays of the two Harolds fall within the same week, the Rennpage and Donovan families celebrated them together at a patio picnic Sunday May 25, with chickens cooked "to a turn" in the new rotisserie.

Hold Classes For Volunteers At State Hospital

An orientation class for volunteers will be held in the Tinley Park State hospital on June 18 and 19. Those desiring to attend the class should register at the hospital by June 13.

Mrs. Alma Young, supervisor of volunteer services, will gladly answer any questions regarding the volunteer program. She may be reached at the hospital, telephone Kellogg 2-4355, extension 21.

The program has been described as a training in human relations. Volunteers who have worked in hospitals say it is very rewarding work.

The training period for volunteer workers begins with an orientation program and never really ends. The course includes scientific information, hospital policy and discussion of the role of the volunteers with the staff.

Volunteers gain an understanding of the various services in the hospital by following the patient from reception, thru treatment and towards recovery.

Also on the training level is on the job work under the supervision of occupational and recreational therapists. The volunteer learns how she may adapt her skills and abilities to the best advantage in the hospital treatment program.

FARM NEWS

For Cook County
by
W. F.
Whiteside

assistant farm adviser

The Share-the-Fun programs held during the month of May were very successful. Over 81 acts appeared in the three festivals. All of the acts showed that the 4-H'ers had spent some time and effort preparing for the festivals. Everyone associated with the Share-the-Fun programs can be proud of the success of the program. The three acts that will represent Cook county in the District Festival are:

1. T N T and Jr. Farmers 4-H Clubs
2. Hanover Hawks 4-H Club
3. Sew and Stir 4-H Club, Mrs. Raymond Jacobsma, Leader- Thornton township.

This club will be represented by an accordian duet by Sharyn Jacobsma and Susan Peterson. The mistress of ceremonies who will represent Cook County is Kaye Smith of the Happy Go Lucky Club of Park Forest.

All 4-H club members are reminded that the public speaking program will be held in conjunction with the regular 4-H Federation meeting June 10. Any 4-H member may speak on a topic relating to any 4-H project work or 4-H activity. Talks should be limited to three to five minutes. I hope a number of 4-H members will take advantage of this opportunity to appear on the program, give their talk and have constructive comments offered by competent judges.

Now is the time to watch elm trees for damage by the elm leaf beetle. When feeding is noticed, use four pounds of lead arsenate or two pounds of 50 per cent wettable DDT powder per hundred gallons of water. Good coverage of foliage is necessary to obtain good control.

Now is the time to spray cedars, pines, arborvitae, junipers, and spruce for mites. Use one heaping tablespoon of Aramite 15W or chlorobenzilate 25W per gallon of water. One thorough application should be enough. Malathion emulsifiable concentrate, 2 teaspoons per gallon, also will control mite as well as various scale pests. Usually more than one application of malathion will be required, however, to control mites.

National 4-H Club Sunday will be observed this year in connection with Rural Life Sunday, May 25. When 4-H members assemble to worship God on 4-H Club Sunday, they join a long succession out of the dim past of history. They join, as have many generations, in seeking the blessing of God upon the land, the seed, the cultivation of the earth and enrichment of home and community life.

Corn borers may develop later this season than in the past three years. With corn planting progressing rapidly, borer survival in late June and July should be high. Field corn will largely escape damage, but growers should watch for some first-generation infestation in early sweet corn. At present serious first-generation damage is not anticipated, but with high survival of first-generation borers the second generation could cause trouble.

There is no way to predict the extent of earworm infestation, but almost certainly very early and late planted sweet corn will need protection. Three funds for the day-by-day expenses of the council, "this money cannot be used for capital funds, which are urgently needed to expand our camping facilities", according to Clifford T. Nicholson of Homewood, general chairman of the sustaining membership committee for Pokagon Trails Council.

Of $3,600 raised in the first enrollment here last year, one thousand dollars was advanced for option to purchase at 32-acre farm adjacent to the council's only summer camp, Camp Betz near Berrien Spring, Mich.

Mr. Nicholson said Pokagon Trails Council must now accumulate the remaining $24,000 to purchase the property when it is made available, probably within the next two years.

"We can then improve our camp to accommodate additional Scouts and activities", he declared.

"Our next objective is the lease or purchase of property for week-end camping within easy reach of our council. Ideal camping sites are disappearing into new housing projects. Scoutmasters are finding it difficult to provide the camping experiences which are so vital to our program. This problem deserves our attention at an early date."

Mr. Nicholson reported 1,040 boys have already made reservations for the six periods this summer at Camp Betz. Cancellations are expected to make it possible for Camp Betz to accommodate its season capacity of 1,000. Week-end camp sites are at Camps Eggers, Hawes, Nissaki, and Roe, for which reservations are often filled six months in advance.

"It is said we spend more on wild life than we do on child life in this country, but parents will find this a puzzling distinction.—Milford Herald-News.

Another Silly Tax

"We hope you remembered, when your congressman and senators were home for Easter, to tell them what you think about paying that 10 per cent luxury tax (of all things!) on all your telephone calls . . . Is it exactly a luxury to call the police or the fire department or the doctor—even to order groceries by phone or conduct business with which to pay for the groceries and all the other local, state and federal taxes!"

Village State Battle Over Liquor License

(CNS)—Evergreen Park is seeking a hearing date on its lawsuit to upset the Illinois Liquor Control Commission's ruling that the White Mill restaurant in the village is entitled to a liquor license.

The village had rejected a 188,000 yards of diapers a year.

liquor license application from the restaurant, located at 3422 West 95th street, but was reversed by the state liquor board.

Evergreen Park officials went to court on a petition for administrative review when the state liquor commission refused to grant the village a rehearing.

The village position is that liquor licenses are limited to 16 in Evergreen Park by local ordinance and all had been issued.

This is Texas Eastern...

Exploring today for tomorrow's reserves

Texas Eastern not only transports natural gas and petroleum products from producing areas to consumers, but is also active in the exploration for and production of crude oil and natural gas.

The company's exploration and production activities began in 1950 along the Texas and Louisiana Gulf Coast. Since that time efforts have steadily expanded until today, exploration and production by Texas Eastern is being carried on in Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Alabama, Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Kansas.

A significant advance in exploration and production by the company came during 1957 with acquisition of La Gloria Oil and Gas Company. This company is a major oil and gas producer and holds extensive leases covering areas of developed and potential oil and gas production. By the end of 1957, Texas Eastern's combined holdings totaled more than 375,000 acres of developed and undeveloped oil and gas producing properties.

Combined production of Texas Eastern and La Gloria during 1957 totaled 3,091,727 barrels of crude oil and products and 35 billion cubic feet of natural gas.

Texas Eastern is proud that it not only supplies petroleum products and natural gas to consumers via its pipelines, but is playing a significant part in uncovering new reserves of oil and gas faster than they are consumed by home and industry.

(CNS)—Attorney have retired to "lick their wounds" after battling for two more days in the county court fight for control over a section of Palos township territory.

The judicial war wages between a group seeking to establish the City of Palos Hills and another group fighting to have their property annexed to the village of Worth.

County Judge Otto Kerner Thursday continued hearing to June 16 after the two days of indecisive arguments.

In one corner, Attorney Franklin Chino represents the petitioners seeking annexation. In the other corner, Attorney Jack M. Siegel represents a group seeking to incorporate their area as the City of Palos Hills.

Judge Kerner denied Chino's motion seeking to place additional signatures on his annexation petition. In his ruling, Judge Kerner contended there is no authority in the law permitting an amendment to the petition.

This is a point for Siegel's group.

Judge Kerner also ruled that five persons can't now object to the annexation petition because they previously signed to withdraw their objections.

This is a point for Chino's group, because Siegel must now drop these five names from the objectors' list.

The area embroiled in the controversy involves about 225 acres west of Worth. Those fighting annexation want this land included in their petition for a referendum to incorporate the City of Palos Hills.

Its proposed boundaries are generally the village limits of Hickory Hills on the north, the Calumet-Sag channel on the south, Kean avenue on the west, and Harlem avenue on the east.
